

big problem...

More than 20 species of seabirds occurring in the ICCAT Convention Area are at risk of extinction. Bycatch in fishing operations is known to be a significant contributor to seabird population declines, and mitigation actions are needed to reduce the number of seabirds killed.

For further details on mitigation measures see the reverse of this poster.

simple solutions...

INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION FOR THE CONSERVATION OF ATLANTIC TUNAS

ICCAT CICTA CIOAA

